

West Point Museum Art Collection, United States Military Academy

Tribal Recognition and U.S. Policy: A Tribal Symposium

Saturday, November 4, 2006
9:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Lewis & Clark Interpretive Center, Great Falls, MT
Attendance FREE, Lunch provided

Join Indian and non-Indian leaders in a dialogue about the history of traditional Indian lands and the policies that separated people and nearly destroyed tribes. Learn how federal recognition efforts can restore pride and empower Indian people.

Case studies presented: Little Shell Chippewa Tribe and others.

Approved for six Renewal Units through the Montana Office of Public Instruction

Speakers: Carol Juneau, Montana State Legislature, Author of the “American Indian Education for All” Act, Browning, MT

James Parker Shield, Vice-Chairman of the Little Shell Chippewa Tribe

Russell Boham, PHD Tribal Education, Instructor of Native American Studies at Salish Kootenai College, Pablo, MT

Garland “Ping” Stiffarm, Assistant Area Director of Billings Indian Health Services,

June Pouesi, Director of the Office of Samoan Affairs, Los Angeles, CA

Anne Coyner, Genealogical Researcher and Consultant, Los Angeles, CA

Representative from the Native American Rights Fund , Boulder, CO

Registration Form

Name: _____

Check box if you would like SIX Renewal Units from OPI

Street or PO Box Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Telephone: _____

Send to: Tribal Symposium Registration
PO Box 1384
Great Falls, MT 59403
or call 406-452-2892 for information